To whom it may concern,

I am making a Right-to-Know request for all public documents (including, but not limited to, minutes of meetings and email or other written correspondences between Board members as well as any that include the Superintendent) that have to do the following items:

- * buying out the superintendent
- * the cost of buying out the superintendent
- * hiring lawyers or consultants to facilitate any aspect of buying out the superintendent
- * the hiring of an interim superintendent

Additionally, I would like any correspondences that show the board making plans to meet on each of the above mentioned items.

To be clear, I am trying to understand how the Board has gotten to where it has. In the absence of any information, you leave the public no choice but to make such requests.

If there are documents that are protected by the agreement signed by the Board and Superintendent Colter, I respectfully ask you to share the specific RSA that grants the Board the right not to release the documents.

Thank you.

Ann,

Thanks for the legal advice.

Question: If I have an email sent to one or two board member only; Why should I assume that my email went out by the receiver of such email to more board members thus making a quorum? Would not that email that was forwarding my email to more members of the board reaching a quorum be the one email that meets the criteria (sent to a quorum of the Board) to turn over to the RTK requester.

Your logic makes me think that I am responsible for the individual action of all board members. Am I??

What emails did you sent to this request that only between one or two board members with the thought by you that it could be forwarded to a quorum of the board? Many? A couple of samples would help me see you logic.

Thank-you

RE: Requests for copies of information by members of the public

As we are receiving more requests for copies of information, I now ask you to follow the below practice for assessing a reimbursement fee. This will be effective August 1, 2007.

Per subject matter* or topic* whether requested at one time or over several days:

Nine pages or under - no cost

Ten pages or over - .08 cents per page (for the total number of copies requested)

The .08 per page is for black & white paper copies or for pdf copies to be transmitted electronically.

When a request for information is made, please inform the requestor of this fee assessment and suggest payment at time of pickup. Checks can be made payable to "Oyster River School District." Prepare an invoice in duplicate; give one copy to the requestor; the other copy would go to the accounts supervisor (along with payment).

For your use, attached is a draft invoice.

*If unsure, check with your immediate supervisor to determine if requests over several days are to be considered as part of one subject matter or topic.

When transferring a Word or Excel document from your file to someone with capabilities to open your attachment, no cost will be assessed.

Lane <ann.lane@comcast.net>

Dear Fellow Board Members,

The RTK request was for the meeting between the search committee (Henry, Ann Lane, myself and Howard) and the teachers that the full board requested at our meeting on May 25. It was NOT for the meeting between Henry, Laura and the Student Senate. I have forwarded several emails to Wendy that were sent and/or rec'd regarding this topic (none, I believe among a quorum of the board) for her to determine whether or not they fall under the RTK law. As her original email stated, we should send her any emails we sent or rec'd on this topic, and she will compile them and determine if they are public. Ann L., you stated that you did not have any, however, you were copied on several that I was also copied on. Henry, you wrote many of them.

This is not all that complicated, nor should there be that many emails on this subject. RTK requests are common, and our administration has been handling them for quite some time, even from board members. This board needs to understand that this is a law that we all need to comply with, and it doesn't matter who made the request or what we think of it. Please take them all seriously and forward any and all emails you may have on this subject to Wendy as soon as you can.

Many Thanks,
Ann

Hello Henry and Ann,

I would like to strongly request an emergency meeting for Monday. In light of the Fosters article today along with the public requests for additional information regarding our non-public discussion regarding the principal nomination, I would like to meet with the board with a lawyer present to determine what, if any, additional information can be released. Ideally we can craft another statement that we can release to the public with more information.

Thanks,
