Subject: Draft Press Release for both Langa and Levesque

Henry,

Here are two draft press releases for the board to approve once we vote tomorrow.

I made up quotes from you, Krista, and the new interim, so I hope that's OK.

Let me know if you want any changes.

Happy 4th of July!

Megan

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Oyster River Cooperative School District Selects New Interim Superintendent

(Durham, NH 7-6-11) - The Oyster River Cooperative School District (ORCSD) School Board has selected Michelle A. Langa to serve a one year term as the district's interim superintendent. The board voted 6-0 for Ms. Langa's selection at a Tuesday, July 5, 2011 special board meeting.

Most recently Ms. Langa led the SAU61 Farmington-Middleton, NH district as superintendent from 2006 - 2010 and curriculum coordinator from 2005-2006. Prior to serving in SAU61, Ms. Langa also served as SAU50 Greenland, New Castle, Newington, Rye, NH assistant superintendent of schools and director of pupil personnel services from 1999-2004 and the Hampton, NH School District's special education director from 1997-1999. Prior to these roles, Ms. Langa was a consultant and executive director at various educational centers.

With respect to taking on the role of ORCSD interim superintendent, Ms. Langa commented, "I look forward to meeting the Oyster River staff, students, and community members. I am delighted to serve as an interim superintendent and assist in furthering district initiatives in the year ahead."

Board chair Henry Brackett commented, "I am quite pleased that Michelle (Langa) will be working for us. She brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to Oyster River. Also, I was impressed how thoroughly and efficiently the search committee worked to identify and bring forth many high caliber candidates."

A search committee comprised of the ORCSD school board, high school principal Todd Allen, co-director of instruction Danielle Bolduc, and business administrator Sue Caswell, interviewed candidates and presented two finalists, Michelle A. Langa and Leon Levesque. The school board interviewed the finalists in public at the July 5, 2011 special board meeting.

Search committee members contacted the Maine and New Hampshire School Administrators Associations as well as educational leaders such as former New Hampshire Education Commissioner Lionel Tracey for candidate recommendations. Ultimately, fifteen individuals were contacted and six candidates were brought forward to interview with the search committee.

Board member, Krista Butts elaborated further on the search, "We divided and tackled tasks - some contacted associations, others called references, and everyone helped interview. It was a concerted team effort to find the type of exceptional leader we want for Oyster River,"

Contract details are being finalized between the ORCSD and Ms. Langa. Ms. Langa currently resides in Dover, NH and will begin work on Monday, July 11, 2011. Ms
